"Dear children! Today I thank you for your prayers. All of you have helped me so that this war may end as soon as possible. I am close to you and I pray for each one of you and I beg you: pray, pray, pray. Only through prayer can we defeat evil and protect all that Satan wants to destroy in your lives. I am your Mother and I love you all equally, and I intercede for you before God. Thank you for having responded to my call." medjugorie.org

St. Pius X– August 21st

What do you think of when you hear the word routine? Dull, boring, and repetitious? That's certainly one meaning, but routine can also mean prepared and disciplined, such as a finely choreographed dance routine. It can also mean regular, like the routine involved in getting ready for bed. And sometimes it can mean all three!

St. Pius X, who is best remembered for encouraging frequent Holy Communion and for lowering the age of First Communion to about seven years old, also encouraged routine reading of the Scriptures. In fact, he urged daily reading of the Bible as part of his motto, "Renew all things in Christ." To promote more regular reading of Scripture, he set up a commission to revise and correct the official text of the Bible used by the Church in addition to establishing the Biblical Institute for scriptural studies.

Getting in the habit of reading uplifting spiritual works such as the Bible requires preparation, discipline, and regularity. First we have to prepare our minds and our hearts. Second, we have to be disciplined. It's all too easy to put off exercise in all forms, and spiritual reading is definitely mental exercise. Finally, we must be regular. If we try a hit-and-miss approach, our learning will also be hit and miss. In short, we have to establish a routine if we want to make any concrete spiritual progress.

TRIUMPH IN THE CROSS RALLY annual Youth Pilgrimage is a faith filled event, which will give you an opportunity to meet your peers from across the diocese and join together to reflect and strengthen your relationship with Jesus! With this year's theme "Created for Greatness" you will grow to understand that you are called to Holiness and that you can achieve this incredible calling! Join us, as we are welcomed by Bishop Paul Terrio along with one of Canada's most sought after Catholic speakers, Ken Yasinski. Share and welcome your friends to take part in this pilgrimage on September 19, 2015 at the Racette School, St. Paul. This day will comprise of talks, prayer, praise & worship music, Way of the Cross pilgrimage around the town of St. Paul, Mass, Adoration and a BBQ supper. This event is geared towards young adults between the ages of 15-35, however young families are welcome to attend. If child care is needed, please let us know, as we will be providing this service. More information and registration forms are available on the website at www.dioceseofstpaul.ca or contact Marilyn Shapka at 780-645-3277.
