The Greatest Commandment

How do we love God with all our heart, soul and mind? Is it possible to love God above all else? Many people say that as they grow older their relationship with God becomes much more central in their life. Many people find that their faith deepens in the autumn of life, often as a result of suffering. I remember someone admitting to having wasted life before attending my Scripture Course. There is a sense in which we could say that it takes a lifetime of practice to love God with all our heart, soul and mind, to live the first commandment, putting God before all else.

To direct us all our lives to love God with our heart soul and mind, God has given us guidelines, the Ten Commandments. The Commandments are not meant to restrict us, not meant to make life less enjoyable for us, but are meant to make life more enjoyable for us because they save us from the potholes that we could fall into going through life. The Commandments are not to restrict our behavior but show us the values in life to love, the qualities in our personalities to develop for happiness in life. (<https://www.frtommylane.com>)
