REFLECTION – Did Jesus need to go through that whole ritual of touching this poor man's ears and tongue and speaking the word of command? Certainly not. More than once Jesus performed miracles without any tangible contact with the beneficiary. What comes across in this encounter is God's humility. Christ deigns to bring the healing power of God into this man's life through symbolic gestures and visible signs. He continues using this tactic through the ministry of his Church: the sacraments (as well as many of the Church's other ministries) are tangible connections between concrete individuals and divine grace. God made us to exist in the unity of body and soul, and he comes to save us in a way appropriate to that nature. We should be grateful for his patience and condescension, and we should be careful to imitate it as we try to bring Christ to those around us.

I want to follow you through thick and thin, Lord. You are faithful, and you govern my life and the entire world with perfect wisdom. Open my eyes, enlighten my mind, so that I will discover your presence and your will in each moment, in every circumstance. You never cease to draw me to yourself; never let me stop seeking your face...

Sometimes the obstacles to making your Kingdom grow seem insurmountable, but in truth they never are. You made the deaf hear and the mute speak, Lord! You can give me all the grace I need to overcome every sinful habit and fulfill my mission in life. Make me a channel of your peace, Lord...

THE NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

SEPTEMBER 8

Today we remember Mary's fundamental role in cooperating with God's plan to bring salvation to the world. By calling to mind Jesus' mother and genealogy, we are reminded that Jesus, although fully divine, was indeed fully human, born to a fully human mother. We also recognize God's eternal plan for Mary, as foretold by the prophets
