The Body And Blood Of Christ

Today we profess and acknowledge the Eucharist as the source and summit of our faith. Here, under the appearance of bread and wine. Christ's body and blood are broken and shared., and we celebrate Christ's enduring presence with us. Here we encounter his compassionate love and healing, and here we are strengthened and nourished to live the Gospel.

In the first reading Melchizedek-a priest of God Most High- brings bread and wine to Abram and blesses him. Paulk writes to the Corinthians, telling them what he received from the Lord that the Lord offered his body and blood to his disciples. Paul says, as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. In the Gospel, Jesus speaks to the crowds about God's kingdom and heals all who need healing. He then feeds them (about five thousand in number), using five loaves and two fish.
