Both the creed we profess and today's Gospel leave no doubt: When we die, we will have to account for every moment in our lives. What did we do with the gifts we were given? What did we fail to do? Will our lives reflect what Saint John Paul II called the civilization of love or the culture of death?

The first reading recalls the faith and courage of the people on the night of the Passover. The author of Hebrews writes, faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. In the Gospel, Jesus encourages the disciples to remain vigilant and be prepared for the return of the Son of Man.

KNOW OUR SAINTS

St. Dominic – August 8

St. Dominic was born in Caleruega Spain in 1170. His parents were members of the Spanish nobility and related to the ruling family. It is known that Dominic was educated in Palencia, and he concentrated on theology and the arts. He spent six years studying theology and four the arts. He was widely acclaimed as an exemplary student by his professors. In 1191, a famine left many people desolate and homeless across Spain, Dominic sold everything he had, including his furniture and clothes and bought food for the poor.

He was confirmed on December 22, 1216 and in 1217, Pope Honorius III dubbed Dominic and his followers “The Order of Preachers”.

Shortly afterwards, Pope Honorius III elevated Dominic to the rank of “Master of the Sacred Palace”. The position has been occupied by Dominican preachers since Dominic himself in 1218. According to writings about him, Dominic chose for himself only the most meager of provisions. His accommodations and clothes were described as “mean”. He refused to sleep on a bed. When he reached the edge of town, he removed his sandals and walked barefoot, regardless of the path. He constantly prayed or issued instruction as he walked and weather he faced discomfort, he praised God. His only possessions were as small bundle and a staff. In his bundle he kept a copy of the Gospel of Matthew and the Epistles of St. Paul, which he would read over and over again. He always drew great crowds wherever he went.

As Dominic traveled, he recognized the need for written rules for his monks to follow. His order had previously adopted the Rule of St. Augustine.

In July of 1221, Dominic took ill with a fever. He asked to be laid on the ground still refusing to use a bed. After several weeks of illness, he made a last confession and a will, then passed away on August 6. He died in the presence of his brother Dominicans. Dominic was just 51.
